

Closed Groups

Sample Packages

Clubclass Residential Language School is highly experienced in dealing with closed groups. Programmes for closed groups are all tailored to the ages of the groups and combine English lessons with a social and entertainment programme. During lessons the emphasis is on spoken English and communication activities which help students build their confidence in using the language outside the classroom. Below are sample packages for closed groups in low season which give a clear idea of what we can offer at Clubclass. Please note that we do not have a set price for closed groups since packages are put together according to the specific requirements of the group leaders/teachers.
